THE SENTINEL.

Saturday, January 26, 1867.

A Short Sermon from a Hard-Shell Baptist Preacher.

"There's nine men standin' at the dore, and they all sed they'd take shugar in ther'n."

Sich, friends and brethering, was the talk, in a wurldly cents, wunst common in this our ninshunt land; but the dais is gone by, and the suns run dry, and no man can say to his naber, hoo art thou, man, and will you take any more shugar in your kaughey?

But the words of our tex has a difrunt and more pertickleree meenin than this. Thar they stood at the dore on a cold wintur's mornin, two Babtiss and two Methdiss and five Lutharians, and the tother one was a publican. And they all with one vois sed they wouldn't dirty thir feet in a dram shop, but if the publikin would go and git the drinks they'd pay for 'em. And they all cried out and every man sed, "I'll take mine with shugar, for it won't feel good to drink the stuff without sweetnin." So the publikin he marched in, and the barkeeper sed, "What want ye?" and he answered and sed, "A drink." "How will ye have it?" "Plane and straight," says he, "for it ain't no use wasting shuger to circumsalivate akasfortis. But there's nine more a standin at the dore, and they all sed they'd take shugar in ther'n."

Friends and brethering, it aint only the licker of sperits that is drunk in this rounderbout and underhand way, but it is licker of all sorts of human wickednis in like manner. Thar's the licker of malis, that many uv you drinks to the drugs, but yure sure to sweeten it with the shugar of self justification. Thar's the licker of avaris that sum keeps behind the curtain for constant use, but they always has it well mixed with the sweetnin of prudence and ekonimy.—Thar's the licker of self-luv that some men drinks by the gallon, but they always puts in lots uv the shugar uv take keer No. 1. And lastly, thar's the licker uv extorshun, which the man sweetens accordin to cirkumstances. If he's in the flour line, he'll say the pore'll be better off eatin korn bread; if he's in the cloth line, why it's a good thing to larn 'em tu make their cloth at home; if he's in the iether line, it'll larn 'em the needcessity of taking better keer uv shoes. "And thar's nine more a standing at the dore, and they all sed they'd take shugar in ther'n."

But friends and brethering, thar's a time cuming and a place fixing, where thar'll be no "standin at the dore" to call for "shugar in ther'n." But they'll have to go rite in and take the drink square up to the front; and the barkeeper'll be old Satun and nobody else; and he'll give them "shugar in ther'n" you'd better believe it, and it'll be shugar of led, and red hot led at that, as sure as your name's Conshunce Dodger. And you'll be entitled to your rashuns three times a day, if not more frequentlier, and if you dont like it you'll have to lump it, and so may the old Nick close down upon all oour silk palverin around the plane ole pools of brotherly luv, and giniirosity and feller-feelin, and fair play! Amen.

Registered Letters.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune says:

The contemplated changes in the method of registering letters will go into effect as soon as the instructions, blanks, &c., can be forwarded to the several postal offices. The new regulations require that registered letters shall not be sent "direct" when a distributing office is located on a route between the mailing office and the office of destination, and they are never to be sent except inclosed in one of the "registered package envelopes" furnished by the Department to all postoffices. Every person connected with the service, through whose hands a "registered package envelope" shall pass in transmission is required to make a record of the number, &c., of the same in the book or blank sheet provided for that purpose, and also to take a receipt for it from the person to whom he delivers it, in all cases where it is practicable. The registration fee is in all cases to be paid in postage stamps to be attached to the letter and cancelled at the mailing office. The full postage upon all registered letters whether foreign or domestic, must be prepaid by stamps. The registration fees are as follows:

On domestic letters to any part of the United States or Territories, twenty cents each; on letters addressed to England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales and the Island of Jamaica, twenty cents each; on letters addressed to Canada, five cents each; on letters addressed to Germany, or any part of the German-Austrian postal union, the same to be forwarded by "Bremen and Hamburg" line, or by the "Prussian closed mail," five cents each.

The "bill" of the registered letter and the letter itself are to be sent separately, and in case of loss the special agent of the Department and the Department itself are to be at once notified, and the loss ferreted out if possible. The Department has made every effort possible to insure the safety of registered letters, but it recommends the use of the money order system, when practicable.

A GOOD POINT—BUTLER AGAIN.—In the House of Representatives on Wednesday, referring to Mr. Boutwell's remark that he wished to preserve the Supreme Court from the contamination of traitors, Mr. Finck said that three-fourths of the eminent lawyers of the country would vastly prefer being associated with Alexander H. Stephens than with the distinguished gentleman from Massachusetts (Benjamin F. Butler.) The gentleman (Mr. Boutwell) ought to remember that not over a year ago the Lieutenant General, of the United States army entertained Mr. Stephens as an invited guest at a public reception, and that men on the other side of the chamber (Mr. Boutwell among them) had taken him by the hand. Was General Grant and were those gentlemen contaminated by the presence of Mr. Stephens? He gave it as his deliberate judgment that the principles of the dominant party in Congress were not in conformity with the principles of the Constitution and of the Government, and hence the efforts of that party to change the Constitution and to invade the jurisdiction of the executive and the judiciary.

A SIGHT FOR RICHMOND.—A Yankee "schoolmarm" was seen walking down Broad street yesterday afternoon, in broad daylight, arm-in-arm with a black buck negro. Let's have a committee of investigation from Washington.—Rich. Dispatch.

Having been appointed agent for the above Company, I respectfully call the attention of the citizens of this section of North Carolina, to the fact that this is a Southern Company with an authorized Capital of $500,000. It's business is ably conducted, by influential, reliable and wealthy citizens of Tennessee.

It has the finest references, and has always been exceedingly prompt in its payments, as can be shown by its records, being sustained by wealthy gentlemen.

It takes both Life and Fire risks on terms as low as any Eastern Company.

This Company is just being introduced into its sister State and I hope it will be well patronized.

Let us support and encourage each other and keep all our money at home.

No one is obliged now to go North to get himself or his property insured, as he can be accommodated here by a company of greatest reliability.

Saturday Evening, Jan. 26, 1867.

Relief For the People.

We learn that a number of the members of the Legislature met in the Commons Hall on yesterday afternoon, for the purpose of a conference upon the pecuniary condition of the people. We are not advised fully of the conclusions to which the meeting came. From all parts of the State, we learn, that under the Stay Law of the Convention, creditors are putting their claims in suit. In some counties there are from 500 to 1,000 writs returnable to the next terms. Wherever there is the remotest prospect of making good a debt, creditors are suing. The consequence is, general uneasiness and alarm prevails among the debtor class.

We regret deeply this state of things, but it is the legitimate result of any stay-law which gives the creditor a slim chance to save his debt ultimately, contrary to the ordinary process of law. When creditors are left to their own discretion to collect whenever they find the necessity to be absolute, they are usually, except sharpers and note-shavers, disposed to give the longest indulgence possible, to honest creditors. But when a stay-law intervenes between them and the ordinary process of collecting a debt, which gives those who are disposed to press the debtor, an advantage by pressing, the indulgent creditor is obliged to follow in their wake, or risk the debt entire. In the present case, the accumulation of costs and the making of deeds of trust, &c., will enable the creditors to make a lean showing in many cases.

It is now manifest to every one that something must be done for the relief of the debtors.—What that something is, it is difficult to determine. We have advised compromise. We know nothing better.

The meeting, we learn, after a pretty full discussion, appointed a Committee to prepare a bill for legislative action. We trust the scheme will fully meet the case.

Railroad to Mount Airy, &c.

The last session of the Legislature authorized the Western (Coal Fields) Railroad, to extend the Road to some point on the North Carolina Railroad. There are various opinions as to the point where it shall touch that Road. The people of Greensboro' are moving energetically to have the Road terminate at that place. Others are in favor of Salisbury, Thomasville and High Point. We should be glad if all those communities could be gratified, but this is impossible. The real question which must decide the matter is this: Where can it terminate, so as to promote certainly, the Road itself, and not injure the North Carolina Road, or any other interest of the State. The plan which will best serve that object, it strikes us, is most desirable.

We observe on yesterday, Mr. Waugh of Surry, introduced a bill to enable the Western R. R. Company to extend itself from the N. C. R. R. to the Virginia line near Mt. Airy. This we regard as a good movement. The interest manifested by the people of Surry, Forsythe, &c., for a Railroad through that region, is encouraging. No work of internal Improvement has ever been projected through that section of the State.—Our citizens in that region are cut off from commerce with the world, except by the old process of wagoning. Portions of the country are productive, and it abounds in fine water-power for manufactories. The continuance of the Road will greatly enhance its business, and it will by that means be of decided advantage to itself and to the N. C. R. R., and greatly accommodate the people in that entire region. The extension of the Road to the Virginia line, does not necessarily affect the question, where the Road shall cross the N. C. R. R. We suppose the place that will take the largest amount of stock, all things else being equal, will most likely fix the point.

NORTH CAROLINA.—A Washington dispatch of Thursday says:

Among the documents laid before the House to-day was a memorial signed by A. H. Jones representative elect from the Charlotte district, North Carolina, and 1438 citizens of that section of the State praying Congress to divide the State and let the loyal men of the Western half organize a new State government. If this cannot be done, they urgently ask a reorganization of the present State government on a loyal basis. The signers of the memorial embrace many of the leading men of Western North Carolina, and is looked upon as one of the most important papers presented at this session of Congress.

If leading men in the Western part of the State favor the above movement, we have not heard their names mentioned. Mr. Jones is a plain man, and so far as we know respectable, but if he is a leading man, we have yet to learn it. He was elected to Congress in the Mountain District, (not Charlotte) because there were three others in the field. He cannot be elected again, even if his petition were granted. But North Carolina will never consent to it. The proposition is all bosh!—Sentinel.

The Legislature—Apprenticeships.

The Senate to-day, passed the House bill, amending the Revised Statutes on the subject of apprenticeships, abolishing all distinctions or differences between whites and blacks. We presume that this will readily settle all differences upon this subject between the Freedmen's Bureau and the civil authorities of the State.

A most important bill was introduced in the House by Mr. McKay, of Cumberland, proposing a loan of $10,000,000 in gold by the State Treasurer and the establishment of a Saving's Bank. It has been intimated to us that the loan can be effected in Europe. If so, it strikes us as a capital idea.

SPEAKERSHIP.—In view of the resignation of Judge Manly, the papers are suggesting the names of gentlemen to supply the vacancy. The Wilmington papers suggest the name of Col. E. D. Hall, and the Charlotte papers the name of Jas. H. Wilson, Esq. These are excellent suggestions. In fact, the Senate can find no difficulty in selecting a Speaker. It has a number of members fully competent to fill the office.

The Situation.

The editor of the Old North State, now at Washington, very correctly says, that any opinion that can be formed of the situation, at present, is the merest conjecture. In his last letter to his paper, he says:

"Every opinion which we might hazard in relation to the political status would be the merest conjecture. A large minority of the Republican members of Congress, including some of the ablest men in the body, are strongly opposed to any interference with the present governments of the Southern States, and we feel quite confident that no bill for that purpose will be passed by the present Congress.—But the next Congress is more Radical than the present, and unless the Southern States shall do something of a satisfactory nature,—adopt the Howard Amendment or give impartial suffrage to the negro,—before its meeting, no one can tell what it will do. By breaking with the President, the Republican party has placed itself in a position from which it cannot well recede, and from which it is afraid to advance. All the more thoughtful of its members contemplate the disruption of the present governments of the Southern States with the greatest alarm, and would doubtless seize with avidity upon any pretext that would enable them to extricate themselves from their unpleasant dilemma with honor.

The Amendment and the Presidential Election.

A Washington correspondent of the Charleston Mercury writes that it is probable that the North Carolina Commission will return home and advise the people that they had better accept the amendment, the disabilities of which, the Commission have been led to believe, will be removed in a year or two. He says further, that they will most likely recommend the Southern people to unite with the Conservative Republicans, in voting for General Grant as the next President—a measure which, it is believed, will disorganize the Republican party, and ensure the defeat of Chase; and that the formation of entirely new political organizations is regarded by moderate Republicans as inevitable.

We do not credit this statement. General Leach, who is one of the members of the Commission referred to, was the author of the report of the Committee on the Howard amendment, by the advice of which, the Legislature refused to ratify.—Wil. Dispatch.

We are glad to be fully authorized to say, that the position assumed by the editor of the Dispatch as to the views of Gen. Leach, is correct. The correspondent of the Charleston Mercury does not understand and therefore misrepresents the position of the North Carolina Commission. We are authorized to say that Gen. Leach and the entire delegation are as decidedly opposed to the Howard amendment as they have ever been. Indeed, all their convictions since they went to Washington, more fully, if possible, confirm them in the soundness of their views upon that subject. They have assured the dominant party at Washington, that North Carolina will under no circumstances recede from her position on the Howard amendment—that she prefers anything else, even negro suffrage by her own act, to that.—We observe that the Richmond Dispatch, has been misled by the correspondent of the Charleston Mercury, on this subject.

News from Washington.

The correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch says:

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23, 1867.

The Democratic members of the House achieved a victory in forcing the Radicals to give them time to set the monstrosities of Boutwell's resolution relating to the test oath in courts before the country, although the time for debate on that topic was unprecedentedly short, only one hour having been allowed.—The intention of the Radicals with this, as in other measures, was to push a vote on it without any discussion whatever; but, much to their surprise, were foiled by the all night filli-bustering proceedings of the thirty-five Democratic representatives.

The Democrats have determind to show fight on every revolutionary move now made on the Radical chequerboard, and began on one of the two cardinal subjects which have been receiving their consideration—namely, the prelude to a re-organization of the Supreme Court. It is useless for them, however, with their powerless minority, to attempt putting off a vote, as the Radicals are numerically strong enough in almost every instance to beat them; but they have determined, at whatever cost, to show up the glaring unconstitutionalities at every opportunity, and had they not been worn out with the fatigue incident to their efforts of last night to prevent a vote without debate, would have given the Republicans more trouble to-day. As it was, their anger became noticeable before morning.

Leading Democrats are very much impressed with the necessity for holding a National Convention of that party at an early date, and there does not seem any doubt that New York will be the place designated for such a Convention, owing to the fact that there would be no danger whatever in that city of disturbance from those opposed to the movement. The fact of the President having been in attendance at their 8th. of January banquet here is regarded as significant that he will give his entire countenance to the movement.

The correspondent of the Richmond Exminer says:

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23, 1867.

The people and the press of the Northern States evidently take more interest at present in the practical measures before Congress than in the political schemes of the Radical leaders. Doubt and uncertainty hang over the business concerns of the country, and Congress is called upon to act upon the great subjects of the debt, taxes and the currency. The public interest requires that the currency should be put upon some certain and known basis, so that the course of prices can be settled and understood. A great reduction of the amount of internal taxation is demanded, and it it be not granted there will arise a question of a graver nature than that of impeachment. The Northwest is the stronghold of Radicalism. The Red Revolutionary Republicanism of Germany gives activity to the native Black Republicanism. Both elements are ready to abolish all Federal taxation and repudiate the debt, as a consequence, while, at the same time, they would willingly overthrow the Government once a year.

The existence of such elements renders the Northern capitalists timid as to any violent political measures, but, at the same time, it is an argument with those in favor of a constitutional provision for the inviolability of the national obligations in regard to the debt. Their chief reason for insisting upon the constitutional amendment is that, if the Southern States come in without it, they will unite with the growing Northwest, and repudiate the entire war debt.

If Congress should terminate its session without reducing the rate of internal taxation, there will prevail much dissatisfaction in the country, and the power of Radicalism will be greatly diminished. Yet, this is likely to be the event. It is now a general opinion that Congress, at this session, will act on no important financial subject.

From the Richmond Enquirer.

The Progress of the Revolution.

The progress of the revolution in Washington cannot but be regarded with deep anxiety. Nothing is more trite than that the mutual independence of the several departments of government is essential to liberty. They cannot otherwise be checks on each other; and unchecked power, under whatever name, is despotism,—dreadful in proportion to the numbers that wield it. A free people are always most jealous of their executives, but in most danger from their legislature. Such is emphatically the experience of this country. The influence of the President and of the Supreme Court has, from the beginning, been conservative. It is Congress that has ever made inroads upon the Constitution. It is Congress that has most chafed under orgasic restrictions, and most aspired to exalt its own discretion into the measure of its powers.

And Congress at this moment, is deliberately and determinedly usurping an absolute supremacy over the other departments, employing ministerial powers to compass organic changes, and exalting itself into an absolute despotism more terrible than the Lernean Hydra. It is of comparatively small moment that the first aim of this tyranny is against the South. Its letters will bind the whole country; and it contemplates as special objects of its fury, a portion of the Northern people so numerous, that a small percentage of change would reverse the supremacy, and turn the persecuted into the persecutors.

But late, the Supreme Court was to be employed as an executive political agency by Congress for exercising its unchastened will. The recent decisions having, however, revealed that its subserviency could not be relied on, it is not only renounced as a servant, but is hunted as an enemy. A majority of the members composing it are of the party that rules in Congress; but it is discovered that they have consciences, while assassins are what is wanted.

In this war upon the Supreme Court, as in the war upon the Executive, the forms of the Constitution are the ambush and shelter from which revolution makes its attack. The letter is to be employed to kill the spirit. The duty of facilitating the functions of the court, is to be used as the opportunity for striking it down. It is useless to tell how wicked this is,—useless to say that it is usurpation,—that it is moral perjury,—that it is infidelity to the most sacred of trusts;—it is what Congress is doing and is resolved to do.

A striking scene in the drama was enacted on Tuesday in Washington. Mr. Boutwell, whose revolutionary outgivings on the stump, had indicated him as a fit leader for the present design, introduced a bill for the degradation of the Supreme Court, and demanded its immediate passage. The friends of the existing government asked for consideration and debate. He allowed them ten minutes—no more! He affirmed that "there were five judges in the highest judicial tribunal of the land who had not sufficient self-respect to enact rules and enforce regulations that would protect themselves from the foul contamination of conspirators and traitors against the Government of the country," and that Congress must take them in hand. Again he declared:

"I say here, on my responsibility, with reference to the recent decision of the Supreme Court, that it is an offence to the dignity and respectability of the nation that the Supreme Court of the nation, by the general authority vested in it under the Constitution and laws, does not protect itself from the contamination of rebels and traitors, until the rebellion itself shall be suppressed, and until those men shall be restored to their rights as citizens of the country. But, the Supreme Court failing in the performance of that high duty, the time has arrived when the Congress of the United States, by whose breath alone the Supreme Court exists, [Mr. Boutwell pronounced these words with streng emphasis,] should assume an exact and specific authority, and should declare by solemn law that men who have been guilty of murder, or treason, or bribery, or who have raised their arms to strike down the government of the country, should not participate in the administration of the laws of the land until they are absolved from their crimes. And it is not enough that the Supreme Court tell us that the President's pardon absolves those men from their iniquities. The President's pardon may open the doors of jails and penitentiaries. It may release criminals who are guilty of murder and other felonies. But while I occupy a place on this floor, never, with my consent, shall the pardon of the President be a certificate on which a felon enters into the sacred tribunals of the land, and assists in the administration of the laws."

As Mr. Boutwell resumed his seat, there was an outburst of applause on the floor and in the galleries.

So runs the report; and it discloses the real proposition couched in a proceeding otherwise petty. The Supreme Court, and the President, are to be subordinated to Congress and administered by its creatures. Sir Harry Vane is to play Cromwell. Congress is to be the sum of the government.

Against this peremptory demand for immediate action, the minority had no defence but parliamentary tactics. They entered their protest through dilatory motions, while Boutwell and his followers showed the ferocity of their determination by passing the whole night, and until eight o'clock of the next morning, in the effort to effect instant adoption.

If the government is thus to be revolutionized;—if the heritage of American freedom is to be thrown away;—the South must be held blameless. If liberty is to be slaughtered, its blood be on the head of its murderers. The North has seized the government, and excluded the South;—the Northern people are responsible. It is their duty,—not the exclusive duty of one party or another party, but the duty of every party, and their duty as a community and as a whole,—to protect that of which they have assumed exclusive custody. The New York Herald exultingly declares, that "the great revolution is still in full blast, and must run its course." If such is the will of the North, the South cannot prevent it, and will have to share the consequences. But it was under other protestations that the Southern withdrawal was pronounced causeless, and that the war upon us was waged. While it is deeply deplored that the liberties achieved by the colonial fathers are thrown away ere the last of them has sunk to rest, it is some comfort to find the late protest of the South vindicated by the open confession that her resistance was to revolution, even yet "in full blast."

"THE GREEKS AT OUR OWN DOORS."—The South hungry, starving—without a voice in the Government, and threatened with more and more of legislative oppression.—New York Express.

NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

SATURDAY MORNING, Jan. 26.

The Senate was called to order at half past 10 o'clock.

Mr. McCorkle, from the committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred a bill authorizing the justices of Warren county to sell certain property recommended its passage. On motion of Mr. Thornton, the rules were suspended and the bill passed its several readings.

By the same, a bill restoring to married women their common law right of dower, recommending that it do not pass.

RESOLUTIONS AND BILLS.

Mr. Adams, a resolution authorizing the issue of duplicate bonds to C. S. Mills, in consequence of the destruction of bonds; referred to the committee on Finance.

Mr. Wilson, a bill to incorporate the Mecklenburg Female College. Referred to the committee on Corporations.

Mr. Wiggins, a resolution instructing the committee on the Judiciary to inquire into the expediency of passing some law empowering Executors, Administrators and Guardians, to compromise claims with persons who may be indebted to their wards and estates, and to report by bill or otherwise. Adopted.

A message was received from the House transmitting a bill to change the time of holding the summer and winter terms of the County Courts of Mitchell and Buncombe counties.—On motion of Mr. Gash the rules were suspended and the bill passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Covington the rules were suspended and the resolution in favor of the county of Stanly was taken up and passed its second reading. (This resolution asks a loan of $3,000, to relieve the needy of the county.) On its third reading, Mr. Robins offered to amend the bill by inserting any other counties which may be in a similar condition. Whereupon Mr. Leach stated he should like to put himself right on this question. He should oppose the amendment, because no other county had appealed for assistance. If the citizens of Randolph are represented as being in a starving condition he would gladly vote to assist them. The yeas and nays were called on the amendment and it was lost by a vote of 24 to 14. Mr. Wilson offered an amendment which was adopted. The question recurring on the passage of the resolution, on motion of Mr. Robins, the yeas and nays were called and the resolution passed by a vote of 26 to 11.

On motion of Mr. Covington the rules were suspended and the resolution granting aid to the counties of Union and Chatham, was taken up. Mr. Covington stated that the only object he had in view in taking it up was to get rid of it, as his people had requested its withdrawal although their condition was as needy as he had represented it. Yet they thought the amount asked for would not be sufficient to accomplish much and might be the means of doing harm.

A message was received from the House transmitting an engrossed bill to amend 5th Chapt. of the revised Code, entitled apprentices. On motion of Mr. Berry, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its several readings.

Also a bill to prevent the destruction of Ginseng in the State of North Carolina.

On motion of Mr. Love, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its several readings.

PRIVATE BILLS.

On motion of the same the rules were suspended, and the bill to incorporate the Bladen Manufacturing Company was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Thornton, the rules were suspended, and the bill to amend the charter of the town of Warrenton was taken up and passed its several readings.

Bill to incorporate the Lexington Mining Company was taken up, amended and, on motion of Mr. Adams, it was recommitted to the committee on Corporations.

Mr. Gash, by leave, introduced a bill to amend the charter of the town of Henderson, in the county of Henderson; on his motion the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its several readings. (The object of this bill is to prevent the sale of spirituous liquors within a mile of the incorporation.)

On motion of Mr. Johnson, the rules were suspended and a resolution in favor of Messrs. March and Peebles, of the county of Davie, was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Avery, the Senate adjourned until half past 10 o'clock Monday morning.

The bill creates a corporation by the name of the North Carolina Savings Bank, to be located in the city of Raleigh,—authorizes the State to subscribe from the loan negotiated, five millions of dollars to the capital stock of said bank in shares of $100 each, individual corporations to subscribe a like amount, constituting a capital stock of ten millions.

Mr. Moore, of Hertford, thought the resolution should be amended, deeming it beneath the dignity of the State, to pay so small a sum for the service rendered.

Mr. Davis said that the Governor and Public Treasurer were empowered to employ an agent in this matter and fix his compensation. The responsibility should rest with them. He moved an indefinite postponement of the resolution, which motion prevailed.

A bill to incorporate Perquimons Male and Female Academy, passed its 2nd and 3rd readings.

ON GENERAL CALENDAR.

A bill to amend sec. 12, chapter 118 Revised Code, entitled "Widows," and a bill to tax Revenue Stamps in bills of Costs, passed their third reading.

A bill allowing fees to Justices of the Peace was put on its third reading.

Messrs. Peebles, Waugh and Richardson urged its passage.

Messrs. Dargan, Latham, of Craven, and Allen opposed it.

Mr. Perry, of Carteret, moved to amend the bill by providing that the fees prescribed shall be paid only in those counties, in which the County Courts may so direct. Not agreed to.

On motion of Mr. Richardson the bill was amended by the addition of a proviso, that where the party convicted shall be unable to pay the Magistrates' costs, the same shall not be taxed as costs of the State.

1867. "THE WORLD" 1867.

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC IS INVITED to the claims of "THE WORLD" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merit consists in its character as An enterprising and Trustworthy Newspaper.

The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions, than even any of the eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy, and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends, making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance.

FERTILIZERS FOR SPRING CROPS.

WE beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.

We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 225 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which won for itself such an enviable reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as ascertained by Dr. Hayes, one of the most eminent Chemists in the country:

Results of Analyses Made of Bradley's Patent Super-Phosphate of Lime, as now sold by Wm. L. Bradley.

100 PARTS CONSIST OF
Moisture	5.30
Prepared animal matter, salts of Ammonia, fatty substances and Humus	38.50
Bone Phosphates of Lime, Magnesia and Iron	36.80
(Soluble Phosphates of do. 16 6-10.)
Sulphate of Lime	16.50
Salts	20
Insoluble	2.60
	99.90

The animal matter afforded 4 2-10 parts of Ammonia when it was decomposed, and, as will be seen, nearly one-half of the Bone Phosphate is soluble.

After many analyses of your Super-Phosphate of Lime, made during the last few months, I have found your standard of quality full equal to that of any you have ever sold in former years; and I am satisfied that you include the correct principles in the manufacture. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

We refer to the following gentlemen who tested its merits last season:

HARD WORKED.—The editor of the Enterprise of this city, has the following notice of himself:

"The Editor has travelled all night, three nights out of four last week, trying to serve himself and his friends. Our readers will remember that we have but little rest, and will doubtless appreciate our efforts to do good to the people."

A MILLION PERSONS STARVED TO DEATH IN BRITISH INDIA.—A Calcutta correspondent of the London Times, December 7, gives some painful details of the recent famine in the District of Orissa. A Government commissioner has prepared a report, of which it is said:

"A picture more heart-rending, facts more hideous, could not be given. The commissioner estimates the deaths in Orissa alone at 500,000 to 600,000, and in some places he admits that three-fourths of the population have been carried off. Orissa had 5,000,000. Add the mortality of Midnapore, which was as severely visited; of Ganjam and Chota Nagpore, which was terribly, yet more mildly dealt with; of Calcutta, whose hospitality still tell so sad a tale; and of the other districts, where the sequela, at least of starvation, carried off many, and remember that the deaths are still going on at the rate of a hundred a day, and you will agree with the rough estimate generally accepted here that the number of victims will not be under 1,000,000. In 1848-'9, when as little was done for relief as in 1866, the mortality in the Jumna Doab was 800,000; but the tale of victims in this Orissa visitation amounts higher than even that—as high as the greatest of all recorded famines in India—that of 1770."

THE HOWARD AMENDMENT.—The following States have ratified the Howard Amendment: New Hampshire, Tennessee, Rhode Island, New Jersey, Oregon, Vermont, Maine, New York, Ohio, Missouri, Kansas, West Virginia, Illinois, Indiana and Minnesota—in all fifteen. Counting the twenty-six States now represented in Congress, the ratification by five more States is all that is required to make it a part of the Constitution—Should Nebraska and Colorado be admitted, six more would be required. It is supposed that by the first of February that twenty States will have ratified the amendment; and then Congress will begin to pass the necessary enabling acts to restore the unrepresented States to the Union. So says the New York Herald.

That is if the bottom does not fall out.—Sentinel.

A PROPOSITION.

IN WHICH YOU ARE INTERESTED.

I PROPOSE for the protection of the citizens of Raleigh and surrounding country, against the imposition of those so-called Cost Stores, to furnish each and every person, the New York Cost of any goods they may want to buy; by this means they can tell whether they are buying goods at Cost or paying a profit on them.

Call before going to any of those Cost Stores so-called, and let me give you a memorandum of Cost prices.

Most of my large stock I will sell at cost but I have goods that I will not sell in that way, and neither will those merchants who make such a flourish about selling at Cost.

No merchant in this place has purchased his Goods any cheaper than I bought mine. Any assertion to the contrary is false; and I will guarantee to sell Goods as low as any Cost House. All I ask is an opportunity to prove the truthfulness of this assertion.

LIFE INSURANCE.

MANY insure their lives because they see the folly of neglecting to do so. Many who do not insure argue that it is folly to insure. Which is right? If those who do not insure can cite instances of the harm done by a policy of life Insurance, if they can point out men who have lost $5,000 to $100,000 by Life Insurance, then upon proof of same, we must believe them. Hundreds of instances can readily be shown where parties have been benefitted to this extent.—In North Carolina there are some Widows and Children ready to testify to the good resulting from a life Insurance on their only earthly dependence.

Do you favor the education of colored children, and if elected will you use your power and influence to give them the advantages enjoyed by the whites? Will you execute ordinances to admit no distinction on account of color as required by the civil rights bill? Will you on municipal works give employment to black and whites alike.?

TRADE MARK

Manufactured under the formula originated in 1854 and patented by

BAUGH & SONS,

SOLE PROPRIETORS, AT THE

Delaware River Chemical Works,

PHILADELPHIA, U. S. A.

This old established MANURE is manufactured from Bones that have not been burned or steamed, and it contains all their original organic matter. It is active in its operation, and is a fertilizer of great durability. It does not exhaust the soil like Peruvian Guano but on the contrary permanently improves it.

Previous to 1861 it was introduced into the Southern States to considerable extent, and again in 1865, where it has been used with remarkable success upon Cotton, Corn, Tobacco, and all Crops.

A trial will convince any planter of its merits.—Pamphlets containing well-known Southern evidence furnished upon application to New York or Philadelphia offices.

☞ Sold by Dealers in all the principal cities and towns throughout the United States and British Provinces.

GEN. R. E. COLSTON,

a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a

Professor of the Virginia

MILITARY INSTITUTE,

and a colleague of

STONEWALL JACKSON.

The course of the Institution is that of the Virginia Military Institute, and is such as to make the Academy a great

POLYTECHNIC SCHOOL.

A school of theoretical and applied science, in which Languages and Literature also receive a due share of attention. The discipline and instructions are on a Complete Military Basis.

The Faculty is for the present organized as follows:

Superintendent and Professor of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy, and Instructor of Infantry and Cavalry tactics, GEN. R. E. COLSTON, late Professor of French, and of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy at the Virginia Military Institute, and late Brig. General C. S. A.

Until the appointment of additional Professors, Gen. Colston takes charge of the Department of French and English studies and Belles Lettres.

Professor of Natural and Experimental Philosophy, Ordnance, Gunnery and instructor of Artillery tactics, Major D. TRUEHEART, Graduate of the Virginia Military Institute in 1850—afterwards Assistant Professor of the Va. Military Institute—attached to the United States Coast Survey—late Major and Chief of Artillery in the C. S. Army.

Professor of Mathematics, Civil and Military Engineering, Architecture, Topographical and Industrial Drawing, and Assistant Instructor of Infantry tactics, Maj. W. A. OBENCHAIN, "first distinguished Graduate," of his Class in the Virginia Military Institute, and for efficient and meritorious services during the war, promoted Captain of Engineers in the late C. S. Army

Professor of Chemistry, Agricultural Chemistry, Geology and Mineralogy, Col. LEWELLYN HOXTON, "Distinguished graduate" of West Point Military Academy, and late Chief of Artillery to Hardee's Corps.

Professor of Latin, French, Ethics and Belles Lettres, to be appointed shortly.

Surgeons Drs. E. & W. S. STRUDWICK.

Now appointments will be made, and the Chairs now filled will be subdivided as soon as the number of Cadets makes it desirable.

Applicants for Professorships must be gentlemen of Scientific and Military education, who have served in the field.

Candidates for admission as Cadets are advised to come without delay. Until the 1st. of February next, all those Cadets present at the Academy, will be pushed forward in their studies irrespective of classes, so as to enable them, at that time, to enter the most advanced classes for which they may be found qualified.

By coming at once they may gain an entire year in the term of their education.
